TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

3d December, 1823.

SIR: In obedience to a resolution of the Senate, of the 1st of March last, directing "the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the Senate, during the first week of its next session, the amount of interest received or receivable in each state on the public debt; the amount of dividends paid or payable in each state, by the Bank of the United States—all in reference to the year 1823; and the amount of duties on tonnage and imports received during the year ending on the 30th September next; and the amount of direct taxes still due and unpaid in each state of the United States;" I have the honor to transmit the accompanying statements and letter (No. 1—7) from the Register and Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, and President of the Bank of the United States, which contain the information required.

I have the honor to be,

Sir, your obedient servant,

WM. H. CRAWFORD.

No. 2.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

July 2d, 1823.

SIR: The Senate, by resolution of the 1st of March last, has directed the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before it, during the first week of its next session, the amount of dividends paid or payable in each state, by the Bank of the United States, during the year 1823.

I therefore request, that you will cause the necessary statement to be prepared and transmitted, in order that it may be laid before that body, in compliance with the said resolution.

I remain, with respect,

Your obedient servant,

WM. H. CRAWFORD.

N. BIDDLE, Esquire,

President of the Bank of the United States.

No. 3.

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES,

July 19, 1823.

SIR: In preparing the statement this day transmitted to you, of the amount of dividends payable in the several states, I have deemed it proper to comply strictly with the resolution of the Senate. If the object, however, be, to ascertain the distribution of the stock of the Bank, the resolution is not sufficiently comprehensive: since there are many stockholders resident in states where there are no offices, and there are others who, although inhabitants of states where there are offices, prefer receiving their dividends at the Bank, or at a distant office; so that the amount of dividends paid in any one state will not accurately represent the quantity of stock held by its citizens. With the view of supplying that information, I have the honor to place at your disposal the enclosed statement.

Very respectfully, your's,

N. BIDDLE, President.

Honorable WM. H. CRAWFORD,

Secretary of the Treasury, Washington.
